“Alfred de Zayas is a gifted human rights lawyer who, alongside Jakob Moller, pioneered the development of UN human rights jurisprudence. He was a dynamic Special Rapporteur, as is evidenced by his Principles for a Democratic and Equitable International Order.”

—BERTRAND RAMCHARAN, Acting UN High Commissioner for Human Rights 2002-2004

“The 25 Zayas Principles of International Order are a modern Magna Carta. If implemented by the international community, they would help ensure peace with social justice in the 21st century. Pursuant to the UN Charter member States bear responsibility for future generations. Hence, they should take concrete measures to achieve this rules-based order in international solidarity.”

—MARIA FERNANDA ESPINOSA, President of the 73rd session of the UN General Assembly, 2018-18

“Zayas proposes a new functional paradigm of human rights for all. His elaboration on principles and on how to apply international law uniformly is a welcome contribution to a necessary debate on the foundations of a just international order.”

—PROFESSOR DR. CARLOS CORREA, University of Buenos Aires, Executive Director of South Centre

“This book goes to the sources of law and justice and proposes pragmatic solutions to many problems, including those of Indigenous Peoples.”

—SHARON H. VENNE, Notokwew Muskwa Maniokan, Expert in International Law and Indigenous Peoples

“This lucid, hands-on, independent, pragmatic study is a mode d’emploi for achieving a rules-based international order under the UN Charter.”

—PROFESSOR CARLOS VILLÁN DURAN, President of the Spanish Society for International Human Rights Law
